

Visit to Burton Constable Hall, nr. Hull – Wednesday 9 May 2018

One of the most fascinating country houses to survive with its historic collections, Burton Constable is a large Elizabethan mansion set in a 300-acre park with thirty rooms open to the public. The interiors of faded splendour are filled with fine furniture, decorative art, sculpture, a library of 5,000 books and a remarkable 18th century cabinet of curiosities. You can also visit the restored 18th century stables or walk in the parkland.

Our time-table for the day will be:

- 08.10 Coach arrives Linton Memorial Hall
- 08.30 Depart, taking a country route
- 10.30 Arrive at Burton Constable Hall
Coffee and biscuits served in the Stables Tea Room. Comfort break. Walk to The Hall.
- 11.25 30-minute expert's introduction to Burton Constable Hall. Some chairs will be available but if you have a stick seat please bring this with you.
- 12.15 Cold lunch with hot drinks in The Stables Tearoom. Please advise Pam Kirby of any special food requirements at the bottom of the booking slip.
Afterwards return to the Hall for a self-guided tour, culminating with the Chippendale Room where Text Panels will be in place. Alternatively, visit the Stables or wander around the Capability Brown parkland.
- 16.00 Gather at the coach where Bucks Fizz will be served.
- 16.30 Departure, returning via M.62
- 18.15 (approximate) Arrive at Linton Memorial Hall
